WHISKERS

THOUSAND PALMS MOURNS WHISKERS

By PAUL WILHEIM

THOUSAND PALMS—This village went into mourning Christmas Day.

Whiskers was dead.

Whiskers, as much a part of Harry Oliver's life as the old adobe walls of his Fort Oliver, died courageously as he lived in the arms of his owner, as neighbors stood by.

Whiskers was shot Christmas Eve. No one knows who fired the bullet.

Seventeen years old, Harry's dog Whiskers was beloved by an entire community.

For those who stood by, as Whiskers fought to the last for his life, there was no shame in wet eyes and constricted throats.

For Whiskers was a symbol. He stood for the community, the mascot of a village. A village that was a struggling hamlet 17 years ago, and that is today a credit to its sister villages in the Coachella Valley.

Who fired the fatal shot on Christmas Eve? Who knows? Perhaps a stray bullet from holiday revelers as Whiskers awaited at midnight on the village corner for a friend.

For Whiskers was like that. He took great pride in his capacity of reception committee for all visitors to Thousand Palms, including all dogs of various breeds and pedigrees.

I once asked Harry if he'd ever taught Whiskers any tricks. "No, he didn't know any," Harry said, "but he liked to talk a lot."

Beside old Fort Oliver, in a quiet cactus garden, today there is a new little mound. Beneath it, Whiskers sleeps.

There were many neighbors at the funeral. For the whole village, it was a sad Christmas.

Someone had placed pretty stones on the mound. Another neighbor brought a ceramic piece for a headstone. This morning, flowers beautify the grave.

Thousand Palms has lost a pioneer, and a friend. Harry Oliver has lost a pal.

MOBUTU PLANNING MILITARY DRIVE

LEOPOLDVILLE. The Congo — Congolese strongman Col. Joseph Mobutu today was reported planning a full-scale military drive to wipe out gains made by forces supporting deposed Premier Patrice Lumumba in eastern Congo.

The threat of civil war heightened even while the U.N. conciliation commission prepared to fly to Leopoldville from New York in an attempt to reconcile the rival factions.

SOURCES HERE said the army's requisition of all planes used on domestic airline flights was aimed at setting up an airlift of loyal Mobutu troops to Kiva Province where pro-Lumumba influence was reported increasing.

Mobutu Thursday took over all 15 airliners of Air Congo, the domestic subsidiary of the Belgian Sabena Airlines.

KIVU LIES between Orientale and Katanga provinces. According to reports, it was "invaded" last week by troops from Orientale where pro-Lumumba forces have set up an "independent" regime in the capital city of Stanleyville.

Court Cancels Eviction Of Negro Share Croppers

CINCINNATI, Ohio — U.S. Court of Appeals today canceled the weekend eviction of Tennessee Negro share croppers who claim they are being forced off the land because they wanted to vote.

The court issued the injunction to keep the status quo in Western Tennessee until it can study the "grave" constitutional questions raised by the government's charges white landlords wanted to evict the share croppers for voting. The court set Feb. 6 for a hearing on the matter.

THE DECISION was cheered by Negro leaders in Somerville, Tenn., where some tenants who left the farms moved into a tent city they called Freedom Village.

Landlords in the area indicated, however, they would go ahead with plans to terminate the annual contracts of their tenants when they expire at midnight Saturday. The landlords said mechanization of farms eliminated the need for sharecroppers.

THE COURT RULED in a case involving about 300 Negroes in Haywood County. The court also said the federal court at Memphis could grant an injunction to prevent eviction of 400 Fayette County tenants this weekend. The government said it would ask for the injunction today.

The appellate court emphasized it was not attempting to interfere with a landlords right to evict a tenant for legitimate reasons. It issued the injunction so that it could look into the government's charges that the evictions in this case were interference with a person's right to vote.

SOME OF THE Negroes at tent city said they would not go back to the farms where they formally lived.

James Forman, Chicago, spokesman for an emergency relief committee for the two counties, said that job offers from Tennessee and Arkansas farmers have been offered to the evicted farm hands.

Forman called the court's decision a "victory for . . . Americans concerned for civil rights . . . and a defeat for the white citizens councils."

CofC Joins Area Water Planning

Samson Named Water Resources Committee Head

Palm Springs will work actively with other communities in the area toward assurance of adequate water supplies for the future, as a result of action taken by the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce this morning.

Chamber President William Smith was authorized at the special board of directors meeting to appoint Herbert Samson as temporary chairman of a water resources committee to study this area's water problems and recommend solutions.

THE AUTHORIZING resolution directed Samson's committee to contact and work closely with similar individuals and groups in this area to find mutually acceptable solutions.

The action followed reports by Samson and water company head Harold Hicks. Both men pointed out that these desert communities were drawing more water from their common water basin than the annual replenishment and that, as a result, the water table was dropping about three and a half feet a year.

TO MEET THIS need, they said, additional water from outside sources would have to be provided. This additional water is potentially available under the California water plan, as passed in Proposition One in the recent election.

However, both Hicks and Samson stressed that the water could only be contracted for by a tax based water district, under the law. Since other districts throughout the state already were contracting for the available water, both men urged early action to put this area in a legal position to contract, even though additional water would not be needed or available for eight to ten years.

Security Arrest Air of Mystery

COLUMBIA, S. C. — An air of almost genial mystery surrounded the arrest of a former Pentagon employee accused of stealing about 200 secret defense documents today.

One Injured In Area Crash

PALM DESERT — Mrs. Valora Campbell, 49, of Lakewood, received minor injuries at 2:30 p.m., Thursday, when a car driven by her husband, Scott, 46, was struck from behind on Highway 111 near Country Club Road here, the California Highway Patrol said.

All of the Chez' interior possessions went at auction Thursday to satisfy a $60,000 mortgage. Owners Dave Halper and Donald Medlevine said they had no immediate night club plans.

MEETING CALLED ON FARM CRISIS

PALM BEACH, Fla. — President-elect John F. Kennedy today called a major agricultural conference in New York next Thursday to plan concerted administration action against what he called "the farm crisis."

Invitations to leaders of top farm organizations went out today from Kennedy headquarters here.

The president-elect had one major federal appointment prepared for announcement tonight. He

IN CATHEDRAL CITY

Mrs. Thelma Fortner Is Decoration Winner Again

CATHEDRAL CITY — Mrs. Thelma Fortner, 68-471 Treasure Trail, for the second year has been declared winner of the annual Cathedral City Christmas Decorating contest, sponsored by the local Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Fortner, who took the top prize, had as her theme "The Old and The New," which depicted on one side of the yard the three wise men approaching the Nativity scene and following the star, and on the other side were carolers and Santa Claus aboard his sleigh with reindeer heading over the rooftop. The display was illuminated by more than 700 lights.

Co-winners were announced for Commercial off Broadway — won by the Sky Ridge trailer park and the Melrose Apartments.

CRAIG BROWN, 34-830 Judy Lane, took the prize with a Christmas scene in the best "first year resident" category.

And in residential displays, the most original award went to Mrs. Frank H. Cunningham, 39-082 Elena Way, for her display of "Santa's Workshop."

Other winners in the residential display were: Mr. and Mrs. Neal Hubbard, 68-541 G Street; E. J. LeClair, 38-705 Paradise Way; and Orvil Zappe, 68-454 Rodeo Road.

One Killed, Many Reported Injured

BRUSSELS, Belgium (UPI)—Gunfire broke out for the first time in the 12-day old antigovernment strike today, killing one man and wounding another while a mob of 2,000 persons rioted in downtown Brussels.

The first death in a week of violence came shortly after mounted police with slashing sabers charged into the mob, seriously injuring at least three demonstrators. One woman was carried away unconscious with a deep saber wound in her head. Two gendarmes were injured.

A COMMUNIQUE issued by Premier Gaston Eyskens' government said revolver shots were fired by a bystander who told authorities he was trying to help free a gendarme seized by the rioters and in danger of harm.

The communique said the man who fired the shots was arrested and emphasized that no members of the gendarmerie opened fire.

The dead man was identified as Francois Van Der Trappen, 30, a resident of Ixelles, a suburb of Brussels.

THE ALLEGED assailant was identified by police as the son of a Brussels University professor.

Officials feared the first death in the rioting might inflame Socialist-led workers striking against a government austerity plan to further violence.

The nationwide fighting forced King Baudouin to cut short his honeymoon in Spain and fly back home Thursday to lend the prestige of his throne to help end the turbulence that has crippled Belgium.

BAUDOUIN CONFERRED this morning with Eyskens, the president of the Senate and the Chamber of Deputies and the heads of the big political parties.

Warm Weather, No Rain Forecast

LOS ANGELES — No precipitation and temperatures averaging 2-6 degrees above normal was the five-day forecast for Southern California issued today by the U.S. Weather Bureau.

Pure Platinum Worth $150,000 Stolen Today

ASHTON, R. I. — About $150,000 worth of precious platinum was stolen today from a manufacturing plant.

The pre-dawn theft was at the Owens-Corning Fiberglas Corp. plant, which manufactures various glass fiber products.

FIFTEEN HOLLOW blocks of platinum used in the manufacturing process were removed from a storage building. Entrance was gained by a hole chopped in the roof.

Each block weighed five pounds and was one foot long, two inches wide, and eight inches deep.

The theft was discovered at mid-morning though it actually was staged sometime after midnight while employees were working in other sections of the plant, police said.

Two in Custody On Suspicion Of Robbery

Palm Springs Police have taken into custody two young men who have been charged with suspicion of armed robbery, and one may be the bandit who held up and robbed Fred Horner, Jr., while he watched the office of the Avalon Hotel.

In custody today in Palm Springs city jail are Larry Angel Cabral, 24, of 204 East Highland, Redlands, and William Logan Hill, 25, of 644 Edgar Avenue, Beaumont.

Cabral was identified by the victim in the Avalon Hotel robbery by a photo, and more positive identification is being sought at this time, as the investigation continues.

YOUNG MAN JUST HAPPY TO BE BACK

HOLLYWOOD — The policeman on the beat in front of the famed Brown Derby restaurant did a double take Thursday along with other onlookers as a nattily attired young man kissed the sidewalk.

Sound technician Don Francis explained to the officer: "I'm not crazy. I was born in Hollywood, but for the past six years I've been working in New York, freezing every winter. I swore if I ever got back to California I'd kiss the sidewalk in front of the Brown Derby. Well, here I am at last—and I just did."

He was represented by Palm Springs attorney James Hollowell.

NEWSOM FORECAST ON COLD WAR:

Same Old Arguments Peril East-West Relations in 1961

(EDITOR'S NOTE: A new era of ill-feeling between East and West replaced the Camp David spirit in 1960. The following dispatch is an assessment of events of the last 12 months and ... how they may affect war or peace.)

By PHIL NEWSOM
 UPI Foreign News Analyst
 As 1960 drew to a close, the world still sought peace on earth. But chances for a calculated all-out shooting war between East and West receded slightly.
 For 1961, the greatest danger could be war by miscalculation.

PERHAPS THE GREATEST single deterrent to war to emerge in 1960 was the United States' atomic submarine equipped with the nuclear-tipped Polaris missile. It made retaliation inevitable no matter how devastating a surprise Communist attack.

The atomic submarine George Washington, with a base on Scotland's Firth of Clyde, is in operation and others soon will follow. Besides the balance of weapons, other events indicated Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev either did not want or was not ready for an all-out test of arms.

IN MAY, KHRUSHCHEV used the incident of the U2 spy plane as his excuse to torpedo the Paris summit conference.

He accused the United States of aggression, said such acts inevitably would lead to war and threatened to annihilate with Soviet rockets any foreign base used by a U. S. plane for landing or take-off.

Eisenhower's reply: The U2 flights were necessary to assure the safety of the United States and the free world against "surprise attack by a power which boasts of its ability to devastate others by missiles ... with atomic warheads."

KHRUSHCHEV'S CHARGES of "treachery" against the President plunged U.S.-U.S.S.R. relations to their lowest point since the Stalin era but the rockets remained on their pads.

On July 1, a U.S. RB47 photo-reconnaissance plane took off from its British base on a northerly route off the Soviet coast over the Barents Sea. Its equipment suggested it was to check Russian radar defenses.

The Russians shot it down, and charged it had penetrated over Russian territory. Three of its crew members were killed and two are being held for Russian trial.

THE UNITED STATES introduced evidence to show it had been shot down over international waters.

The delay in the trial of the two Americans suggests that the U.S.S.R. cannot prove its case.

In any case, Russian propaganda repeated previous threats against U.S. foreign bases.

Three other events might have tempted the Communists to test their armed strength.

The governments of Turkey and the Republic of Korea fell. Both border on Red soil, and in the resulting chaos either might have been a target for Communist intervention. However, the Soviets refrained.

THE THIRD OCCURRED in the Southeast Asia kingdom of Laos after last August's coup toppling the pro-Western Laotian government. Russian arms began flowing to Red commanders in Laos, but as pro-Western forces appeared to be gaining the upper hand, neither the Russians nor the Red Chinese made any immediate moves to follow up what had been a momentary advantage.

Headlines recorded other cold war tides:

"Khrushchev warns France of reborn German militarism."
 "French explode atomic bomb over Sahara Desert. De Gaulle cries, 'Hurrah for France!'"

"EISENHOWER SAYS Cuban leaders betray the Cuban revolution."

"U.S. atomic submarine travels submerged around the world."

"U.S. fires Atlas ICBM record 9,000 miles."

"Communists quit Geneva disarmament talks."

"Red China rejected in United Nations."

"Eisenhower orders ships and planes to patrol coasts of Guatemala and Nicaragua."

As 1960 passed its midpoint and Cuba slipped surely into the Red orbit, Khrushchev said Red rockets would protect Cuba against U.S. aggression. Later, he said he hoped his remarks would be taken as symbolic.

PRE-INAUGURATION TRIPS

JFK's Aides Paying Own Way

WASHINGTON — With few exceptions, officials of the Kennedy administration are paying their own travel expenses in these busy days before inauguration.

The newly named cabinet members and second echelon appointees have been piling up air mileage flying to Washington and Palm Beach, Fla. to confer with President-elect John F. Kennedy and with outgoing Eisenhower administration officials.

PIERRE SALINGER, Kennedy's press secretary, said in response to an inquiry that "by and large" persons traveling any distance to see Kennedy have paid their own way.

In a few cases, he said, expenses have been paid out of the Kennedy staff fund, which is financed by the Democratic National Committee. Presumably these payments were to men who could not personally afford plane tickets, hotel rooms and other travel expenses.

SOME OF THE KENNEDY appointees, such as Douglas Dillon, treasury secretary-designate, and Chester Bowles, named under secretary of state, are men of some wealth.

It is believed that one reason Kennedy is moving his pre-inauguration headquarters to New York City next week is to reduce the travel burden on men who must see him.

Alan Kopelson's Father Succumbs

Elias Wolf, 88, father of Mr. Alan Kopelson of Palm Springs, died at 9:20 p.m., Monday, at Los Angeles Westside Hospital.

Interment was held Wednesday afternoon at Mt. Sinai Memorial Park in Burbank.

Survivors besides Mrs. Kopelson are three sons, Nathan, Edward and Sara; nine grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren.

He followed in death by nine months his wife, Jennie, who was 86 years of age.

On absent voter ballots mark a (X) with pen or pencil.

BOND PROPOSITION: Shall the City of Palm Springs incur a bonded indebtedness in the principal sum of $3,000,000 for the purpose of the acquisition and construction of a certain municipal improvement to wit: a municipal airport including lands and easements (including aviation easements) within Sections 12 and 13, Township 4 South, Range 3 East, S.B.M. (within which is located the present Palm Springs Airport) and other improvements for airport purposes, including any facilities, machinery, equipment and other property necessary therefor, and including any property of the present Palm Springs Airport except the terminal building?

Section 8. A cross (X) placed in the voting square after the word "YES" in the voting square provided shall be counted in favor of the adoption of the proposition. A cross (X) placed in the voting square after the word "NO" in the manner hereinbefore provided shall be counted against the adoption of the proposition.

Section 9. That for the purpose of holding said special election there shall be and are hereby established six (6) voting precincts designated as hereinafter stated. Each such voting precinct shall consist of a consolidation of regular election precincts in the City of Palm Springs (of the numbers hereinafter stated) established for the holding of state and county elections, as said regular election precincts exist on the date of adoption of this ordinance. # Clubs, Hotels--and Citizens--Awaiting New Year's

By GEORGE LAINE

Tomorrow night's the big night. New Year's Eve always brings out the best in the Village—not only in the spirit of camaraderie that springs suddenly in the Springs, but also in the sudden hoisting of entertainment standards around the town.

If the summertime temperatures went up half as fast or half as high as the entertainment therмомeter does at New Year's, we'd all have to leave town or buy king-sized deep freezes to cool off.

LET'S TAKE A quick scan at some of the names who'll be featured in various area clubs and hotels tomorrow night and see if this contention of mine isn't well supported.

First of all there's Mel Torme, a pretty expensive singer by anyone's standards. He'll be in the spotlight over at the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel and he'll have Clifford Guest and the Sylve Sisters plus all of the Riviera's other acts along to make things additionally worthwhile.

Larry Kert, a pretty fabulous hit in Broadway's great "West Side Story," headlines at La Paz along with Arthur Blake, Al Anthony, Harold Lloyd, Jr., Tom Russell's Trio and special guest Gloria Swanson.

Eddy Howard's Orchestra—plus pretty Holly Winters and the big show segment—holds down the Silver Palm Room although there'll also be polynesian type revelry out in the South Pacific Room with Tommy Ainau's Serenaders in charge.

DUKE MITCHELL headlines the Ranch Club show—which will also feature Jimmy Dale—and Jane Russell headlines a big show at the Chi Chi Starlite Room.

Murray Arnold makes his Village debut for the season tomorrow night when three, count 'em, three bands will be in force. Also on the card are Lewis and Sanchez and the Guadalajara Boys.

Marv Jenkins spectacular brand of piano wizardry ought to keep attendees captivated out Whispering Waters way but there are reports that the gang—Lloyd Bridges, Dennis Weaver, Carolyn Jones, Pat Conway and Hugh O'Brian—have some fun of their own scheduled for the room. (Maybe Bridges will do a soft shoe.)

THE PRICES RANGE all the way from an economical $7.50 per head to an eye-bulging $25 per each.

Some locations—Desert Air Hotel, Farmhouse and Ruby's Dunes—haven't changed their price scale at all, but they're the exceptions.

Best buys at this time appear to be the Desert Inn and the Hilltop Room, where that $7.50 tariff is in force. Both locations have entertainment with the Hilltop boasting an unusually strong bill (Bobby Correll's Trio with Connie Palumbo, Mike Bedney and Raul and Gustavo) and the DI featuring dancing (to Meg Campbell's Trio).

Another buy, unusual in every aspect, is the one at Sans Gene—which may be completely reserved by the time you read this. For $20 each, a choice of 7-course dinner, favors, noisemakers—and all you can drink!

THE HIGHEST PRICE on the list is the one at La Paz, where $25 per person is being charged. But the Independent Cancer Research Foundation is slated to receive the profits after entertainment is paid and that ought to make the price a little more comfortable.

From that $25 price, the tariff dips to $20 per at El Mirador, $17.50 at Chi Chi and Howard Manor, $15 each at the Riviera and then a big group at $12.50 per head.

El Mirador Hotel—Eddy Howard Orchestra and Show in Silver Palm Room, ($20 per person) Pepe Callahan with Julio Corona in the Kiva Room, Tommy Ainau's Serenaders in South Pacific Room, ($10 per person).

RIVIERA GAINS SEIFERT ABILITY

Murray Seifert, new executive assistant manager at the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel, is a veteran hotelman who has had wide experience catering to the needs of people from the Piping Rock Club in Saratoga Springs to the plush Beverly Hills Hotel, general manager Ted Ratcliff revealed.

Seifert, recently named to the key post here, has also been food supervisor for a United States Air Force cadet school. The Air Force, seeking the answer to better food for the taxpayers' dollars, joined the Army in pioneering the specialty food service center.

In Beverly Hills, Seifert managed functions for such interna-

And that about tears it.

Me? I think I'll have a corned beef at Nate's and go home to rest.

LAST CHANCE FOR YOU to see "The Pajama Game" at the Riviera's Mediterranean Room tonight.

MISS NORTH SHORE, pretty Vicki Davenport, is swapping her title for Miss Pajama Game monicker in this photo. Pert brunette is part of cast of the former Broadway hit which ends its run tonight at Mediterranean Room of Palm Springs Riviera Hotel. See "After Sunset" column.

And for those of you who haven't seen it, Pete Hall's got a good deal. Pick up your regular $2.50 ticket for tonight's closing show at Hallmark Television and you'll get it for $2, period.

You can't beat that for a good deal, particularly since reports have it that the show has rounded into a tightly worked, nicely-presented thing following that case of first night mishap.

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: You can plan now to see an afternoon of donkey games — including a donkey baseball game — and aid the Disabled American Veterans Chapter No. 66 at the same time . . . Just be at the Polo Grounds at 1 p.m., tomorrow . . . proceeds will purchase ambulance equipment — if the returns are good—perhaps even an ambulance . . .

Teen Burglar Returns Loot, Gets Caught

Puzzled Police Probe Punishment For Reluctant Thief

Juvenile officers in Indio are considering the proper punishment for a Palm Springs juvenile "burglar" whose heart wasn't in it.

Police here apprehended a 14-year-old youth who burglarized Palm Springs area trailers of miscellaneous items, left polite notes including one reading "Merry Christmas" — and then began returning the ill-gotten gains.

IN FACT, EXPLAINED juvenile officer Robert Davis, it was tracks from one of his trips to return some of the items that led to his apprehension.

"It looks more like a lark than a standard juvenile burglary," Davis observed.

The youngster told officers he had taken small things from several trailers, decided it would cause "pain or embarrassment" to the victims, and began returning the items.

TO ONE VICTIM he had left a "Merry Christmas" note in the trailer bathroom. To another, he left a hand-lettered note explaining that the one missing item — or its cash equivalent — would be returned as soon as he could get it back to the trailer. To a third trailer, he returned a boxful of small items.

Ground Broken For Capehart Plan at Base

TWENTYNINE PALMS, Calif. — The official ground breaking ceremonies for the $2,240,000 Capehart Housing Project at the Marine Corps Base, Twentynine Palms featured Brigadier General Lewis J. Fields, Commanding General, and O. J. Watson and D. L. Bradley, contractors, joining together to turn over the first shovels full of earth.

During the brief ceremony, the Commanding General turned over the proposed site to the contractors, the D and L and the O and J Construction Companies of Los Angeles.

The contractors then ordered a bulldozer to work as a sign of their acceptance and the project was officially opened.

Actual work was begun Dec. 18 when survey teams moved into the site.

RESEARCH HOUSE AID TO BUILDERS

By United Press International

The new features of tomorrow's house are on the design boards today. Many are being developed by the Research Institute of the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB).

In the following interview, Ralph Johnson, the institute's director, explains its work.

Q.—What is the purpose of the Research Institute?

A.—The basic objective is to help builders produce a better value home in all price ranges.

Q.—What are some of the areas for improved techniques?

A.—There are a number. We are trying to reduce the total amount of on-site labor as well as the total construction time, because this will reduce costs. We are encouraging builders to use more component parts and to improve the handling of materials and to exploit power tools and machinery.

Q.—How do you test your new techniques?

A.—By building research houses. The first one was built in 1957.

Q.—Is a research house simply sold like any other house?

A.—A house has to be lived in if it's going to be really tested, so all our research houses are owner-occupied. One of the covenants in the deed, however, provides that we can go in periodically and make tests of the structure and see how certain materials and elements are holding up.

Q.—What are some usable results of your research houses?

A.—An interesting example of a usable result is a floor-to-ceiling door that fits "on" the opening instead of "in" the opening. This eliminates some of the framing and most of the tedious fitting required in hanging the conventional door. The door uses a "push-pull" latch mechanism that eliminates the twisting motion necessary to open most doors. These new doors are on the market now.

GARDENING IN THE DESERT

Early Winter Proves Myth

Those two weeks in November that gave us the opinion we were on our way to an early winter proved to be a myth; however, the deciduous trees have decided to take a rest and start stripping their branches. Those of us who work on a compost pit will probably scrape up the fallen leaves and work them into the pit and use the hose on them to help tamp them down.

Gardeners on the low desert keep on planting as usual but those mountains, a few interior valleys and the high desert are a detriment to the residents there mostly because of the heavy winds and cold weather.

IF THE AMATEUR Gardener has an urge to experiment on bare-root stock the turn of the century would be an ideal time to start in on it. There are all kinds of plants on which to experiment: grape vines, shade trees, fruit trees, roses, etc., but be sure to plant them when you buy them: in other words, keep them damp.

When the bed is prepared and the root system spread be sure there are no air gaps below the surface. We are going a little too fast; we should previously have mentioned that all the frayed or broken parts of the root system should be cut off.

WHEN HANDLING bare-root roses best results are gained from one: — choose bare-roots No. 1.

HACIENDA OPENING GETS COUNTY DELAY

A request by the Desert Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce that Hacienda Avenue be opened westerly to Indian Avenue was referred back to the planning commission this week by the Board of Supervisors, for consideration as part of the master plan of highways. The referral was recommended by the commission.

The commission said traffic counts indicate the existing streets are adequate to handle present traffic. The chamber of commerce stated in requesting the improvement that the road is vitally needed to serve the fast growing community.

Fisher Quits Commission

The resignation of Wayne Fisher of Blythe from the county airport commission was accepted by the Board of Supervisors this week and at the suggestion of Supervisor George Berkey preparation of a resolution was ordered to express the board's appreciation of Fisher's service to the county.

He has been on the airport commission for 10 years and previously served on the county fair board.

FISHER'S RESIGNATION becomes effective Dec. 31, but his term of office does not expire until June 30, 1961.

At the last meeting of the commission when he first declared his intention of resigning, Fisher suggested the name of Ben Alexander of Blythe as his possible successor, but he said that he would not recommend the appointment because of the present uncertain status of the commission.

THE BLYTHE commissioner referred to a recommendation made by Supervisor George Berkey now under consideration that the commission be stripped of its administrative power and retained only in an advisory capacity.

New Orleans Holiday Scene for Nugents

By ELLEN SAUNDERS

Attorney and Mrs. Leighton Nugent are spending the holidays in New Orleans with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Leighton Nugent, Rev. Nugent is associate director of the Trinity Episcopal Church there.

Mrs. Margit Tarasoff enjoyed Christmas in Covina with her daughter and son-in-law, the Matthews Burns and their children, Christine and Michael.

The Carl Haymes are enjoying a week's stay at the Hollywood Roosevelt. On Christmas Day they were the guests of their niece, Mrs. Jack Osborne of Pasadena. Plans called for them to attend several dinner parties at the home of friends in Laguna and Manhattan Beach before their return after New Year's.

Mrs. Edna Ellis spent the holiday weekend in San Francisco. She was accompanied by her son, Jim, an employee of Columbia Studios. The two attended the theatre and sampled many of the Bay City's famous restaurants.

Mr. and Mrs. James O. Nesbitt flew to Brunswick, Maine, the day after Christmas for a week's visit with their son and daughter-in-law, Lt. Cmdr. and Mrs. James O. Nesbitt and five grandsons.

Mrs. Elsie Gastreich is enjoying the holidays with her daughter and son-in-law, Jaye and Bob Carter and granddaughter Billie Joe, in Downey.

The Sam Bentons motored to Arcadia on Saturday where they were the houseguests of Mrs. Benton's sisters, Mrs. Guy Munhall and Mrs. Ruth Campbell. On Christmas Day they joined other members of their family from Phoenix, San Diego and Sacramento at a dinner party at the home of Mrs. Benton's sister, Miss Florence Blain in Duarte.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smilen and son Barry were among the 100 guests who attended a reception on Sunday at the Los Angeles home of Mrs. Bessie Teller, honoring Mrs. Teller's son and daughter-in-law, the Richard Tellers, who were married here on Dec. 18. The bride is the former Phyllis Smilen.

The Simon Thompsons spent a quiet Christmas here. Their dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Eric Walker and daughter, Joyce, of Riverside. The Walkers formerly lived in our town and Mr. Walker was one of the founders of the local Toastmasters Club.

Dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Kleinjung on Christmas Day included Mrs. Charles Meadows, the D. Bruce Stewarts, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Whaley, the Kleinjung's nephew George Stewart and his 12-year-old son, Steven, of Pasadena.

The Nate Rineharts and the Nat Bertrams celebrated Christmas Day together, the reason being that both Mrs. Bertram and Mrs. Rinehart were observing their birthdays. On hand to offer congratulations were the Rineharts' son and daughter-in-law, the Cy Rineharts and children, Sandy and Roger, of Encino; the Bertram's daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Carmel, their two sons, Richard and Jeffrey, an honor student at the University of California at Berkeley, and daughter, Robin, of Sherman Oaks. Also the Bertram's daughter and son-in-law, the Perry Bertrams of Arcadia and their son, Gregg.

Mrs. Viola Dinsmore enjoyed Christmas dinner with her daughter and son-in-law, the Jack B. Donahues at their North Hollywood home. Other guests included Mrs. Dinsmore's two sisters, Mrs. Lulu Wheeland of Pasadena and Mrs. Georgia Atchison, of North Hollywood. Also Mrs. Atchison's son and daughter-in-law, the Dick Atchisons of Pasadena.

Mrs. Dinsmore recently attended the wedding of Miss Belinda Claxton, daughter of the H. Claxtons of Banning, to Gray Lee Eastin, which was solemnized at the Community Methodist Church in Banning. Miss Claxton is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Wardman of Whittier.

Hike Sought In Probation Dept. Salaries

Three Departments Need Salary Hikes, Supervisors Told

Bert R. Van Horn, county probation officer, told the Board of Supervisors this week that a review of salaries and job classifications for the three divisions of his department — probation of office, juvenile hall and Twin Pines Ranch — is urgently needed. "The basic salary structure should be such that the probation department will be enabled to attract and hold qualified and dedicated personnel in all three divisions," declared Van Horn.

HE SAID HIS REQUEST for an immediate study was prompted by an unprecedented turnover in personnel amounting to over 51 per cent for the past two years at juvenile hall, nearly 40 per cent at Twin Pines Ranch this past year, and three resignations within the last 30 days in the deputy probation officer classification. "The vast majority of the resignations are due essentially to low salaries," said Van Horn.

"ANOTHER VITALLY important factor," he said, "is that within the year 1961 some 300 jobs will become available at the youth training school in Ontario, a majority of which will pay in excess of the present highest positions in Riverside County. A large number of this department's personnel are eligible." The probation officer's request was referred to the personnel officer for consideration.

NIXON AIDE HEADING BACK TO SAN DIEGO

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Herbert G. Klein, press secretary to Richard M. Nixon, will return to his former post as editor of the San Diego Union when the vice president becomes a private citizen Jan. 20, James S. Copley, publisher of the newspaper, announced today.

Klein was known to have received several offers to remain in the East. He said he would make a decision in February on proposals to do special television shows and also to write a semi-weekly political column. Copley announced Klein's return Wednesday night.

Klein has been on leave of absence as editor of the California paper since May, 1959.

NASA BOSS QUIT, SAYS U.S. ON TOP

WASHINGTON (UPI) — T. Keith Glennan, chief of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, submitted his resignation today and said the United States is again "pre-eminent in the conduct of research and development."

Glennan's resignation is effective Jan. 20, the date President-elect John F. Kennedy enters office. Glennan will return to the presidency of the Case Institute of Technology at Cleveland.

IN A LETTER ACCEPTING the resignation, President Eisenhower said that NASA in its 27 months of existence had "compiled a record of achievement of which every American can be justly proud."

"Because of the organization and program you have helped to create, Americans can look forward to a remarkable future in space exploration," the President wrote Glennan.

He added: "It is hard to realize — yet inexorably true — that the near future will hold such wonders as the orbital flight of an astronaut, the landing of instruments on the moon, the launching of the giant Saturn, and the reconnaissance of Mars and Venus by unmanned vehicles."

GLENNAN SUBMITTED to the President an 11-page summary of NASA accomplishments since its creation Oct. 1, 1958.

Glennan said that his agency had set up an organization capable of handling science and technology for space exploration and exploiting space technology and vehicles for beneficial use.

Private industry again is threatened by government invasion and competition — this time with Postmaster Gen. Summerfield's announced plans to establish facsimile transmission systems similar to those already pioneered by Western Union.

President Eisenhower in the past has established a definite policy of "giving America back to the people and not interfering with private industry" during his two terms. Now near the end of his administration it comes as a surprise that a direct contradiction to that policy is planned.

The entrance of the Post Office department into the field of facsimile transmission systems is comparable to its purchasing its own railroads and airlines to transport the mail. Western Union President Walter P. Marshall brought it out very clearly when he commented, "If the Post Office Department proposes to use facsimile for the transmission of mail, it should contract with the communications industry . . . just as it contracts with the railroads and airlines to transport the mail."

The Desert Sun feels the Post Office should go slow in pre-empting a field already occupied by private business, and hopes that President-elect Kennedy will not give his sanction to such acts.

De Gaulle Warns Kennedy

WASHINGTON, D.C. — General Charles De Gaulle, maybe the wisest statesman of our era, has made two sage judgments concerning the USA—both of which are pertinent to the incoming Kennedy Administration.

De Gaulle said in one of his books that this country, in abandoning isolation, went clear to the other extreme by embracing universal intervention. And the General said in a National Press Club interview that time itself might prevent a clash between the USA and USSR—because these two countries are continuously becoming more alike.

WELL, IT IS one of President-elect Kennedy's serious problems to ease back from the long limb of extreme interventionism—but without backing into the opposite error. Mr. Eisenhower has recently given an example in point. In the matter of supplying UN troops for the Congo expedition, General Ike played it cautiously. American planes and crews joined the Blue Helmets of the UN, but we supplied little or no personnel for bodily contact.

Instead of using the Congo crisis as a grandstand play for showing white and Negro soldiers in the same outfits, we played down the color question. We let countries which are virtually all-white like Ireland, and the Scandinavian nations, or mainly colored, like the West African republics, perform the conspicuous military operations.

IT WILL BE SAID that the President and Secretary Herter are tired, aging men, who are bound to give us policies that are weak and timid. It will be added, I don't doubt, that President-elect is young, fiery and forthright, and that we must expect his policies to reflect the man. But intervention—everywhere where would be a policy of big risk for small results. The new President had better pick his spots. For example, the President-elect would be both wise and bold if he established very early that we are going to take better care of our men who fall into enemy hands. A really daring paratroop rescue of an American air crew taken prisoner is the tonic that our side needs, and the sort of medicine the Reds ought to be fed for a change.

THE OTHER Gaullist observation—that the USA and USSR are becoming alike—should be treated as a warning. We don't want peace at that price, for while it's all right for Russia to become Americanized, it is all wrong for America to become collectivized or socialized.

What De Gaulle had in mind was that the Russian economy is becoming less Spartan with the increase of consumer goods and the decrease of police surveillance, and that the United States is becoming less of a competitive society and more of a welfare society.

WELL, LET'S SAY what ought to be said. There are some in the Kennedy Organization whose philosophy is that Russia isn't so bad and that America is very wicked because of unemployment, racial discrimination, crowded schools and their social ills—although, strangely, I have never heard a social reformer get angry about the flagrant crime in America.

There is a hidden but present danger in assuming much likeness between our country and Khrushchev's. The peril lies in accepting the collectivist trend of the past few years as inevitable and desirable. Last summer, in Williamsburg (Va.), the Lebanese scholar-statesman, Charles Malik, made a telling point on this subject. He said, supplying his own italics:

"IF YOU BELIEVE that all these developments of the Fifties of the 20th century could not have been helped, then you are already a Marxist. For Marx, Lenin and Khrushchev hold firmly (and K. repeats it every day) that the iron laws of history are precisely such that whatever happens, Communism will come out on top." Spare us from believers in this sort of inevitability. —Holmes Alexander

Expert on Female Figures

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The government, as you know, has an expert on everything and I've just been talking with the expert on female figures.

There are, of course, a lot of guys, both in and out of the government, who think they are experts on this subject. But I can tell you they are not in the same class with Mansfield Lonie of the Commerce Department.

Lonie, who is manager of standardization projects in the Commodity Standards Division, has made a career out of sizing up women. What he knows about women's figures would fill a book, a copy of which I now have before me.

It is entitled "Body Measurements for the Sizing of Women's Patterns and Apparel" and it is what Lonie calls the "magnum opus" of his 15-year study of the female body.

I WANT to make it clear, however, that Lonie's interest in this field is of an abstract nature. He is a very circumspect gentleman who would be embarrassed by any suggestion that his work is anything more than technical.

He has devoted most of his time to compiling and correlating statistics gathered from a survey in which 10,000 women were measured 48 ways. This, I must say, was a surprise to me. I always thought there were only 47 ways to measure a woman.

THE PURPOSE of all this measuring is to enable garment manufacturers to standardize the size of ready-made clothing. In other words, a woman who wears a size 12-T dress should be able to buy a sweater or a slip of that size and be confident of getting a reasonable fit.

Unfortunately, this is not now the case. Sweaters and slips generally are sold by bust sizes, and a size 32 sweater may be intended for a 34-inch bust.

IN THE OLD days, dress size standards took in only the bust, waist and hips, and it was assumed that when the hips increased by two inches, the waist and bust would do likewise. Lonie's studies, however, have disproven this theory.

Actually, the growth relationship varies according to height and age. The taller and younger a woman is, the less bust development she has in relation to her hips. Moreover, it has been found that women in Italy develop by the same ratio as women in America, Gina Lollobrigida to the contrary notwithstanding.

Lonie and his co-workers recently have completed a new set of standards for boys' sizes which are now being reviewed by the industry. They found that under the old standards, there was a certain group of boys who could never find a good fit.

He also is doing some preliminary work on sizes for men, but has encountered some difficulty. Surveys indicate that men are reluctant to let themselves be measured, Lonie said.

PLEASE DON'T POINT

LONDON, ENGL. — Tourists to the British colony of Sarawak in Borneo are advised in a colonial information leaflet not to scare snakes.

"Stand aside politely," the leaflet urges, "and give the snake a chance to move away. Do not stare or point. Snakes do not like that."

WHY CHANGE?

SWAINSWICK, ENG. — Mrs. Mrs. Harriette Fletcher angrily went ahead with birthday plans today although a check of records showed she was born Dec. 28th.

"I've always celebrated on the 28th and I see no reason to change now," she said. "Mrs. Fletcher is 100."

VACANT HOUSE STILL

BANKSTON, ALA. — Mrs. Agatha Dick arrived here Tuesday from her Fayette home to inspect an unoccupied house she owns in Bankston.

She found two 1,000-gallon moonshine whisky stills in the basement. Police are investigating.

ALL IS FORGIVEN

MONTGOMERY, ALA. — John B. Thomas asked the Missing Persons Bureau here Wednesday to locate his brother-in-law, David Johnson. He said Johnson left town four years ago to avoid paying a $1 traffic ticket.

Now look at Nineteen Sixty One Then stand it on its head And you will find that what you read, Is what you just have read.

It isn't going to be long before you do look at 1961.

BUT BEFORE we go into that, that bit of doggerel above brings up a related thought. That word, "read," I mean.

It is spelled the same way in lines three and four but the pronunciation is decidedly dissimilar.

That's why I like the letters I get from my grandsons. There's never a chance of mistaking their meaning.

FOR INSTANCE, comes a book as a Christmas present. Rather a learned volume so I believe their dad recommended it. But the note that came with it: "Here's something for you to read, granddad. And after you have read it, tell us what you think of it."

No mistaking that one. No two words spelled alike, read, but not pronounced alike.

NOW, TO RETURN to that 1961 business. You'll soon become accustomed to writing that. But if you look at 1961 upside down, it will still be 1961. Try it.

I believe that is the first time that has happened since 1891 but there's no one around today to confirm that.

Of course, 1881 could qualify. That is, if you are the kind who makes both loops on the "8" the same size and not like a picture of a snowman, the way so many people do.

JUST AS THERE is no one around who can recall writing 1891, then turning it upside down to again read 1891, there's no one here today, I'm pretty certain, who's going to be able to do it the next time it happens.

For as close as I can figure, which is difficult what with the radio blaring "Mac, the Knife," instead of "White Christmas" as it did all last week, the next time you'll be able to write down the number of the year, then look at it from the other side to get the same answer, will be 6009.

And after that, 9006.

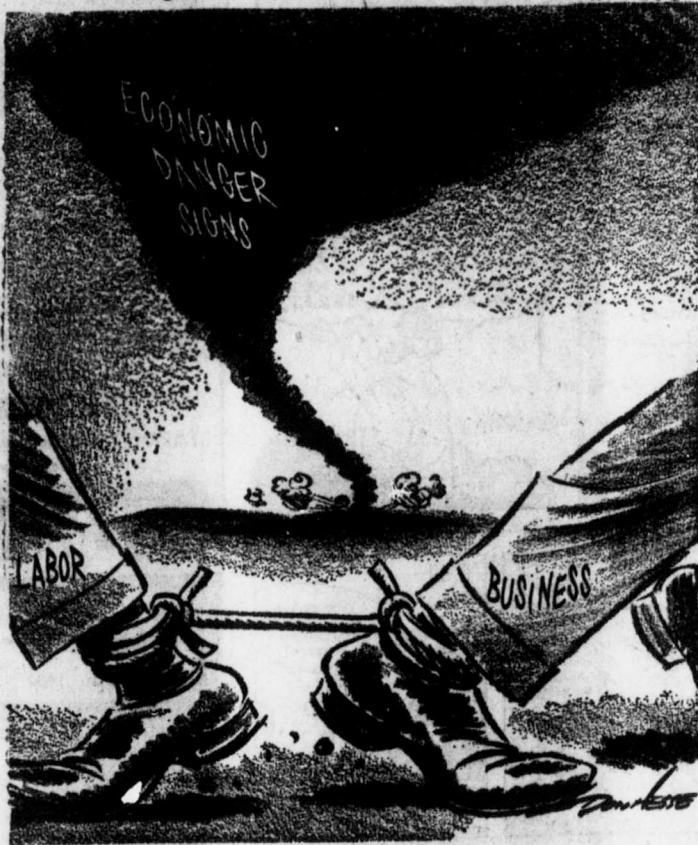

IF YOU CAN FIGURE out a date earlier than 6009, let me know. I spent a day at it and missed the Eagle-Packer TV game, being so engrossed. Reminds me of a profitless day, many years ago, when I put in five hours trying to find another sentence which contained all of the letters of the alphabet and still made sense. Like:

"The quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dogs."

MAURICE SEITTER presents a wise thought for this week. It being smack dab in the middle between the two big holidays. Says he:

"Some people's idea of celebrating the holidays is to have a Christmas they'll never forget and a New Year's they can't remember."

Maybe It's Time to Pull Together

STAN DELAPLANE:

Kitzbuehel After Dark

The 17-day, all-expense air vacation to the ski country has filled the Austrian Tyrol with stretch ski pants.

I flew over by TWA jet, 14 hours from San Francisco, even allowing a three-hour layover in New York. So fast do we travel these jet-powered days from the Golden Gate to the snowy mountains of Austria.

THE ANCIENT walled town of 7,000 Catholic souls is swelled to three times that number by the winter skiers. (Winter air rates make this the cheapest vacation of the year to Europe.)

The local druggist and the local photographer closed up shop and became ski instructors. And all the bright, shining slopes of the enormous mountains flash the rainbow colors of people sliding down hill.

DURING THE DAY the town is almost empty—except for the come-and-crutch casualties.

But at night the town lights up in a Hansel-and-Gretel picture postcard scene. The ski slopes are lit by two rows of flaming torches. A jingle bell sleigh with a white horse clipety-clip through the snowy streets from the railroad station.

A TINY TRAIN from the express line peanut whistles around the town.

And each opening door sends a burst of light and concertina music into the frosty night.

THE OTHER NIGHT we went up to check the action. The most active spot was Praxmair's, whose walls are still waiting a repainting of the Tatzelwurm, a local dragon whose daily meal was a Kitzbuehel virgin.

"We painted the walls this fall," said the proprietor worriedly. "And we painted over the mural of the Tatzelwurm. Now we are waiting for the painter to repaint it. But he is busy in Salzburg."

The painting was not a great work of art. But it was quite famous.

YOU COULD SIT at Praxmair's bar with a local winebrand and see the scaly monster taking a bite at a plump painted virgin. (He had a look in his eye like the front row at the burlesque.)

All the regular customers have been complaining at Praxmair's. And the proprietor seemed about ready to take a bite out of one of the waitresses. He was that upset.

THE MOST ELEGANT spot in town is the Grand Hotel. It is a huge chateau-type building, sprawling across the front of the town.

At its gate, an iron militiaman stands continual guard as they did in 1809. An ancient iron moustache in his iron hands and snow on his iron moustache.

"KITZBUEHEL OWES its good fortune to the Prince of Wales," said the waiter at the Grand. An orchestra of violins played Austrians waltzes in the lounge. And the Austrian red wine glowed in the glass.

"It was the Prince who came here in 1935. He stayed at this very hotel."

"He skied a little. That is what made Kitzbuehel the best-known ski village in the Tyrol."

"BUT THAT IS not what we remember," said the waiter sentimentally. (The orchestra began playing "Wien, Wien.")

"What endears that dear man to our hearts is overlooked by you writers."

"It was the day the Prince disappeared. Such a commotion! His entourage looked high and low. The police were called. The ancient gates were guarded."

"Where do you think we found him?"

"WE FOUND HIM down at Eggwirth's restaurant. There he sat, smiling and contented, eating a Tyrolean Kneidel — our most famous dumpling."

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: The company my husband works for had a Christmas party. I got down on my hands and knees and begged him not to go this year because last year he came home drunk with lipstick all over his face. Well, he went anyway and came home drunker this year than last and full of lipstick. I hit him on the head with a lunch bucket and cut his head open a little bit. (He was lucky I didn't kill him.) He said he only went to show the men he wasn't henpecked. Do you blame me for hitting him?

AGGIE

DEAR ABBY: A woman has no more right to hit her husband than a man has to hit his wife, no matter how high the feeling (or the husband) is. Your husband certainly didn't need ANOTHER hole in his head; he has one.

DEAR ABBY: What can you do about a neighbor who, knowingly perfectly well you have company, charges right in the front door, marches into your kitchen and remains there, monopolizing the conversation right up until the time your company leaves?

Honestly, I can't stand the thought of hurting her feelings, because I know I am welcome in her home any time, but I would never do to her what she does to me. I have had friends, who I haven't seen in years, come to visit me, and we have so much to catch up on, but this neighbor takes up all our time. Even my relatives think twice before coming over because they know she will be here. It's getting me down. Is there a solution?

LOSING PATIENCE

DEAR LOSING: Yes. Tell your neighbor straight from the shoulder that she is welcome to "drop in" any time, but who she sees that you have company, you'd appreciate privacy. If you lose her friendship, you aren't out much. DEAR ABBY: Have you ever heard of a couple being engaged for sixteen years? The girl is my sister. It has become a family joke, only it's not funny any more. She is 41 and he's in his fifties. They go everywhere together. This man attends all the family gatherings and she goes to his. There has been no ugly gossip about them, but it's embarrassing for the family. Should we continue to include him as a member of our family, knowing our sister will probably die an old maid?

SOMEBODY'S SISTER

DEAR SIS: There is no law against an engaged couple going together. If your sister doesn't mind, why ostracize them?

Suit of Armand V. Turomet and Augusta Wolfe to remove deed restrictions on certain property in the Merita Vista Tract was decided in their favor this week by Superior Judge G. R. Freeman of Riverside. The plaintiffs in their suit asked removal of deed restrictions of a strip of land 120 feet deep along Palm Canyon Drive at the two corners of Palm Canyon Drive and Merita Place, and between the Nichols property and the Harold Hicks real estate offices. Turomet owns the two corners and Mrs. Wolfe the property between the two real estate offices. Deed restrictions limited the use of these properties to one family dwellings.

T. V. Notes

The theme will be a review of the great songs of the past 30 years. Performers will include Andy Williams, the McGuire Sisters, Juliet Prowse, Connie Francis and the Hermes Pan Dancers. Harry James, prominent band leader through much of the period covered, will lead the orchestra.

Jackie Gleason, delayed in starting the movie he plans to make in France, will turn up as host-star of a new weekly half-hour panel show, "You're in the Picture," for CBS Jan. 20. It will be the comedian's first regular series on the air since January, 1959.

Four guests try to guess the nature of a picture of which they become a part but cannot see. Jackie has to work fast getting the show taped well ahead of cause he still plans to get to France in March to film "Gigot."

Supervisors Hike Salary of Hospital Administrator

The salary of Fred K. Holbrook, administrator of the county general hospital at Arlington, was increased by the Board of Supervisors this week from $1,236 per month to $1,306 per month, effective Feb. 1.

Personnel Director Donald Spencer had recommended a slightly higher increase and said he was not satisfied with the schedule chosen by the board. He preferred choice of a salary schedule which would give Holbrook more prestige and recognize the responsibility of his position.

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

Robert Andersen agreed with Spencer that Holbrook is the man chiefly responsible for operation of the hospital, but he recommended that the salary not be changed at this time. He suggested a change to a salary schedule which would give Holbrook the same salary he now gets but would permit four future increases under the county's five-step salary plan.

The change proposed by Spencer would also permit four more increases for Holbrook, but on a higher level.

SPENCER NOTED that since Holbrook became administrator in April of 1958 four more positions have been created at the hospital and all have been at salaries judged high enough to attract qualified specialists.

Dr. George Anday as chief of professional services, top medical man at the hospital, draws a salary of $1,380 per month. He is on the third step of Schedule 57. The advancement approved by the supervisors places Holbrook on the second step of the same schedule. The pathologist, on the fourth step of the same schedule draws a salary of $1,448 per month. The positions of radiologist and anesthesiologist, also on Schedule 57, are presently vacant.

SUPERVISOR WILLIAM Jones said he would go along with Andersen's recommendation placing Holbrook on a different schedule with future advancement policies but leaving his salary as it is, but he did not approve any increase in salary at this time.

Supervisor Fred McCall pointed out that Holbrook was not given an increase this year at the time many other salary increases were granted for numerous other positions.

The vote on the promotion was three ayes, one no, and one absent. Voting for it were Supervisors Paul Anderson, Curtis Chamberlain and McCall; voting no, Supervisor Jones; and absent from the room at the time the vote was taken, Supervisor Gerge Berkey.

Explanation

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—Judge Sue Hicks tells the story over and over again of how he got the name "Sue."

Hicks had four older brothers and four older sisters. His mother died two weeks after he was born, so his father named him "Sue" to honor Mrs. Hicks.

RANCHO MIRAGE

Berry Offers Land for Park

By JEAN PATANE

Floyd E. Berry, retired real estate broker and frequent visitor to Rancho Mirage, made an offer this week to donate 100 acres of land for the proposed Santa Susana Pass State Park near Chatsworth.

The offer was made through Assemblyman Fox Cunningham of Ventura and Tom Carrell of San Fernando. The land which Berry offered for the park is in the area of the Chatsworth Park, located at the western edge of the San Fernando Valley and is a portion of the Berry Movie Ranch where a number of the outstanding TV shows are being filmed.

The acreage, which is valued in excess of $100,000 is reported to contain many Indian sites and caves and is believed to be the location of outlaw headquarters during the early days of California.

New desert residents Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Foden, their sons, Rick and Dwight, and daughters Michele and baby Nickey, who arrived recently from Rochester, Mich., have leased the Joe Cooke home on Desert Drive.

For Christmas dinner Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hrabak were joined by their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hrabak and children, Mary, Tommy and baby Charles who make their home in Cathedral City. Mrs. Hrabak flew to San Francisco Wednesday for a two week visit and will return with her uncle, retired Judge Francis Krull who has been in the northern city on business. Judge Krull now makes his home with the Hrabaks in Rancho Mirage.

At Casa Verde Apartments for the winter are Mr. and Mrs. Max Klebsattel whose home is in Vermont. Mr. and Mrs. Al G. Wolf of Seattle, Wash., are here for a month and weekend guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. Narhedonia of Woodland Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Phillip, their son, Steven, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don De Wolf, returned to their Rancho Mirage homes Christmas Day from Reseda where they spent Christmas Eve at the home of her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Amadon.

Red Planes Said Carrying Troops

VIENTIANE, Laos (U)—Soviet-built planes ferried in Communist Vietnamese troop reinforcements to the Vang Vieng mountain stronghold of leftist paratroop Capt. Kong Le in addition to airdropping military supplies to the rebels, according to reports here today.

A Laotian member of a Western embassy staff who escaped from Vang Vieng said he saw "more than 100" Communist North Vietnamese troops there.

AMERICANS SET CHARITY GIFT RECORD

NEW YORK (U)—Americans gave more than $8 billion in philanthropic gifts during 1960, according to preliminary figures released today by the American Association of Fund-Raising Councils, Inc.

This compares with $7.8 billion in 1959 and $7.1 billion in 1958. Final figures for 1960 were expected to show an increase over 1959 which may exceed $465 million.

Their daughter, Linda, who is attending Immaculate Heart High School in Los Angeles, is spending the holiday vacation with her aunt and uncle.

Here from San Clemente to spend the Christmas weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Nelson were their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Shaw and children, Larry and Gayle, and Mrs. Nelson's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Polson. Joining the family were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown of Santa Monica, who have been close friends of the Nelsons for more than fifty years. Here for the holiday weekend at Nelson's Motel were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Warner and Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Blake from Burbank, Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Dodgeson, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Bishop and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brooks from San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hybauer and daughter from Del Mar, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Minnick from Garden Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. De Rochi from San Rafael.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert O'Neil and children, Dennis and Sharon, arrived Tuesday from their home in Rolling Hills to spend several days at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Fincher and family.

After spending Christmas weekend at the home of her daughter and family, the Michael Buccinos, Mrs. Angela De Biase returned to her home in Los Angeles Monday. Christmas Eve the Buccinos hosted their traditional holiday buffet for friends and relatives following Midnight Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Ludlow Flower, Jr., and their daughter, Cynthia, who is home for the holidays from Stanford University, Mila and Amber flew down in their own plane from their home in Bel Air to join his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ludlow Flower, Sr., for Christmas dinner. They plan to spend the rest of the week in the desert. Cynthia has as her houseguest Richard Barrett, also attending Stanford, who arrived Monday from his home in Santa Barbara.
